

A Tradition of Caring

Martina Place is the latest addition to the continuum of care offered on the campus of the Bishop Drumm Retirement Center. The beautifully landscaped, 10 acre campus also includes the McAuley Terrace independent living apartments and Bishop Drumm Care Center. Residents of Martina Place receive priority status on the waiting list for admission to Bishop Drumm Care Center, should the need arise. Residents in need of financial assistance may be eligible for help through the Circle of Mercy Endowment Fund. The professional health care services available at Mercy Medical Center complete the extensive quality senior services provided by the Sisters of Mercy.

Equal Access

Excellence.
Every Day in Every Way.™

Martina Place offers personalized assistance, supportive services and health related care in a home-like environment. Residents enjoy the comforts and amenities of home with the security of 24-hour care and the companionship of supportive staff.

The Comfort of Home

Located in a quiet, tree-lined neighborhood, Martina Place was designed to help residents feel comfortable in their living environment. The one and two bedroom suites come complete with a kitchenette and private bath.

Groups of suites are clustered in neighborhoods that include a living room, family room, communal kitchen and dining room. Our screened front porch invites residents into a peaceful and secure outdoor setting for reading, relaxing and visiting. Residents can also enjoy the outdoors in our beautiful enclosed courtyard.

Quality Care

Martina Place is an assisted living residence offering personal care in the type of environment that results in the greatest level of independence. Services include help with bathing, dressing, grooming and medication supervision. We are committed to quality care and offer an excellent staff-to-resident ratio. Residents receive truly individualized care, 24-hours a day, including on-call emergency health care services.

Working together with family members, our staff completes a support team whose goal is to help residents by caring for their mind, body and spirit. Quality respite care, for people needing short-term assistance during recuperative periods, is also offered. Please talk with our staff about availability.

Safe and Secure

Residents and their families enjoy exceptional peace of mind knowing that Martina Place is a safe and secure residence. Around-the-clock staffing assures that help is available anytime during the day or night. Plus, our 24-hour security system controls access to the building.

Activities and Amenities

Martina Place offers a variety of planned cultural, social, religious and recreational activities to help residents remain active and involved. Programs are designed to appeal to our residents' diverse interests. Local clergy celebrate mass and conduct interfaith services regularly to offer spiritual enrichment. Conveniently scheduled transportation is also available to medical appointments, for shopping and to other destinations.

Dining at Martina Place offers another opportunity for social interaction. Served in our comfortable dining rooms, our high quality, home cooked meals are planned with residents' tastes in mind.
